Dear Mike:

With further reference to my letter of 22 February, concerning [redacted] [redacted] I have learned that he has withdrawn his application for employment with this Agency.

We had found a suitable position for [redacted] and the processing was nearly complete when he wrote us a very nice letter stating that he was appreciative of our efforts but that he had accepted a position with the [redacted]

Your continued interest in this Agency is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Mike:

With reference to your telephone call concerning [redacted] I have checked into the matter and learned the following.

[redacted] originally applied for a position with us in October 1950. At that time no position happened to be available which fitted his qualifications. Subsequently however, in the latter part of 1951 his case was reconsidered and he was offered a position in January 1952, which he initially accepted. Shortly thereafter by telephone he notified us that he was no longer interested in the job.

In May 1952 he reapplied for a position but at that time we again had nothing suitable. Between May 1952 and February 5, 1955 we heard nothing from [redacted]. On the latter date he sent us a letter applying for a position and on 10 February our Personnel office answered his letter, sending him certain forms to execute in order to bring his file up to date. Upon receipt of this material from [redacted] we will again make a thorough check and see if we can locate something for him.

I will be happy to keep you advised in this matter.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

The Honorable Edward Martin

Dear Ed:

Thank you for your letter of 22 July 1955, in behalf of [redacted] who has applied for a position with this Agency.

[redacted] first applied in February 1954, and his application has been reviewed periodically since that time.
Unfortunately, however, we have been unable to find a suitable vacancy for him and he was most recently informed of this by our Personnel Office on 8 July 1955. We are keeping his application in our active file, however, and shall contact him should the situation change.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

WLD
